

NF 007 – The Compassion of Release

The talk is a reading of an essay, "The Compassion of Release," published on metahistory.org on July 11, 2009, containing comments on the instruction of Tantra Mother concerning the process of release from pretending. It adds a sixth instruction to the given list of five: the union of desire and compassion.

<http://www.metahistory.org/tantra/lunarshaktis/CompassionRelease.php>

In the last few sentences of the recording, I said (paraphrase) "no one could come out with such grievances if they held them back in the presence of the person to whom that are directed – I meant, of course, if they did NOT hold them back.

NOTE: the passage on the "21 unions" can be found here:

<http://www.metahistory.org/tantra/lunarshaktis/DesireCompassion.php>